Important to Lumbermen
AND
Owners of Hemlock Lands.
THE AMERICAN PATENTED IMPROVED TANNING COMPANY of New York own the exclusive right in the United States for the manufacture of an impersishable "EXTRACT" from Hemlock Bark, for tanning purposes. The Bark Extract is now extensively used among Tanners, and the demand for it is rapidly increasing. It commands a ready sale in the Boston, New York and Philadelphia markets, at sixty cents per gallon. The appliances for manufacturing are simple and not expensive, costing but little more than the ordinary leaches used by Tanners. By this process two cords of hemlock may be reduced so as to concentrate the entire strength into forty gallons of extract, without in the slightest degree injuring its tanning qualities, and as a so st not exceeding one dollar per cord. The saving in freight alone, between the transportation of the Extract and the Bark, will range from six to eight dollars per cord, so that any one who may get out but three hundred cords of Bark per year, may save from two thousand to twenty-five hundred dollars in the difference in freight.
The Company does not propose to sell Territorial rights, but will grant exclusive privilege to manufacture in certain localities, charging a small royalty per gallon on the amount manufactured.
The Company will send competent men to superintend the construction of works, where parties desire to enter into the business, and to instruct in the manufacture of the Extract.
As a guarantee of success to parties entering into this business, the Company will contract to take all the Extract manufactured under their process at fifty cents per gallon, delivered in Boston or New York.
Parties in New England desiring further information as to terms, &c., may call upon or address Mr. THOMAS W. JOHNSON, General Agent of the Company, at the American House in Boston, where models of the apparatus may be seen.

Loss of another Ocean Steamer—Embezzlement in New York—Cable Despatches.

BUFFALO, Dec. 6.

Thousands of uniforms designed for the Fenians are now in an express office in this city.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 6.

The steamship Sawanee, from New York for Brazos Santiago, was lost off Cape Romania on the 4th inst. A small boat containing the captain and fifteen persons, has not been heard from. The other boats, in charge of the mate and chief engineer, were picked up by the brig Potomac and carried into Georgetown, S. C. Fifteen persons in all have been saved and brought here. They will leave for New York to-morrow in the steamer Moncka.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 6.

J. B. Campbell was to-day elected U. S. Senator from this State on the second ballot.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 6.

Five persons have died at Crab Orchard from eating fresh killed pork supposed to have hog cholera.

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.

A young man, engaged as a clerk at the postoffice, was arrested yesterday on charge of embezzling registered letters from that department. He confessed his fault. He was committed in default of $3000 bail.

Charles D. Cady, late a clerk in the employ of Ricker & Co., stock brokers, at No. 80 Broadway, decamped on the 24th ultimo, with certificates of stock amounting in value to more than $100,000. He was arrested in this city yesterday afternoon, by Detective Farley, who was obliged to administer a severe chastisement to Cady before he surrendered. A large amount of stolen property was found in his possession.

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.

The World has the following London despatch—

It is reported here to-day that the Emperor Maximilian has telegraphed by the Atlantic cable that he will soon land at Gibraltar.

BOSTON, Dec. 7.

Fourteen vessels and twenty-six lives have been lost in prosecution of the fishing business of Gloucester during the past year. Loss of life is more than double that of last year. Value of vessel property lost was $104,000.

TALLAHASSEE, Dec. 6.

The House of Representatives have taken up the report of the committee to whom was referred the proposed constitutional amendment, and by a unanimous vote agreed to that report. The report recommends the rejection of the amendment.

MONTREAL, Dec. 7.

The Herald publishes extracts from letters written by a citizen of Montreal who served in the American army and afterwards was in the Papal service. When in the South he became acquainted with John H. Surratt, whom he identified in Italy serving with the Zouaves. This person informed the American Ambassador at Rome, who sent for instructions to Mr. Seward. In conversation Surratt is reported to have said that the assassination of President Lincoln was planned at Richmond and with the assent of Jeff Davis. The informant against Surratt is now on the way to Washington.

MONTGOMERY, Dec. 6.

The papers generally oppose the recent position taken by Judge Busteed in favor of the adoption of the congressional amendment, charging him with having abandoned the true interests of the people whom he professes to represent.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.

The Secretary of War today sends a communication to the House in answer to a resolution calling for the amount of funds received by the bureau of Refugee Freedmen and Abandoned Lands from its organization to the 1st of April, 1866, etc. The receipts from various sources were $917,396 28. Total amount expenses $478,362 17. Balance on hand Oct. 31st, 1865, $429,033 11. Deducted and held as retained bounties, $115,236 49. Balance on hand Oct. 31st, available to meet liabilities, $313,795 62.

The New York city election on Tuesday brought out but 71,597 voters and the "Ring" candidate for Comptroller was elected by only 2066 majority, a fact which shows that proper efforts on the part of the Reform party would have given them the victory. The Republicans elected three of the nine candidates for Aldermen and the Democrats the remainder. Among those defeated was "Honest Christopher Pallman," as Mr. Parton styles him, and whose absence from the board the coming year must be a relief to those members of the "Ring" who go in for the largest possible division of the spoils. The Tribune says that the choice of these three Republicans secures to the Board of Aldermen an element of intelligence to which it has almost a stranger.

At a "Republican Municipal Caucus" in Cambridge, Massachusetts, Monday night, Dr. Wyman offered the following:

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this meeting that corporal punishment of girls should be abolished in each and every public school of the city.

The Doctor, Professor Agassiz, and others spoke in favor of the resolution, but Mayor Merrill and Jud'N. Barbour opposed it. The resolution, with an amendment, including boys was carried, and the report says "with great applause." This is a great step in the civilization of that State.

Religious Intelligence.

—From the Gardiner Reporter we learn that on Wednesday, 21st, Rev. John T. Magrath, deacon, was admitted to the sacred order of priests at Christ-Church, in that city. The sermon was preached by Rt. Rev. G. M. Randall, D. D., missionary Bishop of Colorado.

—The First Presbyterian church in Boston has extended a call to Rev. Dr. Ormiston of Hamilton, Canada. Salary, $4000.

—The Gospel Banner says the Universalists of Saco and Biddeford have recently extended an invitation to Rev. Judson Fisher of Paper Mill Village, N. H., to become their pastor, with a strong probability of his acceptance.

—An endowment fund of $100,000 for Middlebury College is nearly completed.

—Rev. S. R. Brown, missionary in Japan, has recently sent to this country six Japanese youth to be educated, and it is probable that they will be first placed at Monson Academy, under the care of Rev. Charles Hammond. Mr. Brown is a native of Monson. —[Boston Advertiser.

—Cholera has been making fearful inroads upon the population of Persia, in the regions occupied by our American missionaries. From 4000 to 5000 persons have recently died of this disease in the city of Oroomiah alone.

—The Concord Statesman says that in the 186 years of the existence of the North church in that city, there have been but four pastors:—Rev. Timothy Walker, who remained nearly 52 years; Rev. Israel Evans, 7 years; Rev. Asa McFarland, 27, and Rev. Nathaniel Bouton, D. D., who has just been released, 42 years.

—The Christian Advocate has an editorial urging American Methodists to undertake in a borough manner a mission to Italy.—Iturges that the English Wesleyans, who have a mission there, are not so acceptable to the Italian people as Americans would be, but that Methodism is peculiarly adapted to them.

—The Bath Times is informed by Rev. A. H. Morrill, pastor of North Street Church in that city, who has spent a week at West Waterville, that an interesting religious revival is progressing at that place. It is estimated that from seventy-five to one hundred have recently been converted. The awakening is supposed to be the result of a union effort on the part of the Methodists and the Free Will and Calvinist Baptists.

—The Centenary Fund, as reported in Zion's Herald last week, has now reached the sum of $3,158,583.

REMARKABLE RECOVERY OF MONEY. A singular incident is told in connection with a recent accident on one of the New York Railroads. There was on the train a gentleman and lady who had been to the oil regions. The lady had $5000 in gold secreted on her person. She was taken to the hotel nearly insensible, and appeared to have been injured by being trampled upon. Her husband stood by the bed and took every article of clothing as fast as removed from her person, but not a dollar of gold was to be found. In the morning at daybreak he repaired to the place of disaster, and there was the money. His wife had been trampled upon until the gold had become detached from her person and trod through the car window, where it safely lay on the ground.

LONG SENTENCES. An exchange puplishes an item stating that "the most astonishing sentence in the English language, at least for its great length, is probably the seventh section of the British Foreign Enlistment Act, which is composed of a single sentence containing very nearly 600 words."

To this a correspondent replies that he finds in "A Discourse Commemorative of Daniel Webster", delivered before Dartmouth College, July 27, 1853, by Rufus Choate, sentences of 520, 532 and 1235 words! the latter occupying four pages of the work. All good, plain English words.

THE CROSBY OPERA HOUSE ART ASSOCIATION. By the announcement which has appeared in our columns, the public will see that the date on which the first premium, as well as the premiums offered alongwith it to the subscribers of the Association, will be drawn, has been positively fixed by the Committee of Arrangements for Jan. 21, 1867.—The names of this committee are a strong indorsement of the good faith of Mr. Crosby. —[Boston Journal.

INTERESTING FACT. The Gold Hill (California) News says the theory of the aged German physician that life was greatly prolonged by sleeping with the head to the North, finds confirmation in the fact that most American politicians who have for scores of years laid their heads to the South, are very dead.

A NARROW ESCAPE. A car load of passengers, over fifty in number, had a narrow escape from drowning at the East Boston Ferry yesterday afternoon about two o'clk. The car was driven on the boat and stopped when about twenty feet from the forward end. It being necessary to move the car further forward to make room for more teams, and the driver being on the forward platform, one of the deck hands of the boat jumped on the car, and let off the brake.—This started the car forward, crowding the horses toward the edge of the boat. The deck hand tried to stop the car, but it was beyond his control, and was fast pushing the horses overboard. The driver, who was at the rear end of the car, examining the brake there, put it on with all the force in his power, and held it firmly, and in this way alone saved the car from going overboard. As it was it crowded the horses so that they went over and were detached from the car by cutting the harnesses. A boat immediately put off to them and they swam around to Jeffries' Point, where they were landed without damage. As may be supposed, the passengers in the car—a majority of whom were ladies—were very much frightened, and there was a good deal of scrambling, screaming, &c. They certainly have reason to be thankful at their narrow escape from a watery grave, for if the car had gone over not one out of four of them could possibly have been saved.—Boston Journal.

The last notion is that of Colorado Jewett, who memorializes Congress to declare Hannibal Hamlin President of the United States. He argues that the second election of Mr. Lincoln was not constitutional, as eleven of the States did not appoint electors, and that Mr. Hamlin holds over, as Mr. Lincoln would have done, in the absence of a legal successor.

WHEELER & LYNDE, PROPRIETORS

WM. H. WHEELER, EDITOR.

☞ Business letters should be addressed to the Publishers. "WHEELER & LYNDE."

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1866.

OUR FINANCES. The Secretary of the Treasury does not present, in his report, what may be called strictly a new plan for returning to specie payments. He has changed none of the views which he maintained in his last report, and which were enunciated in the Fort Wayne speech. He believes that the Secretary of the Treasury should have power to control the currency to the extent of being authorized, at his discretion, to sell bonds bearing interest not exceeding six per cent., and redeemable and payable at such periods as may be conducive to the interests of the government, for the purpose of retiring all United States notes. He asks Congress to authorize a long five per cent. bond, exempt from taxation, in which to fund the obligations that are soon to mature. He lays great stress on urging Congress to adopt at an early day a fixed policy of contraction, which, when adopted will cause the business of the country to gravitate to it so that specie payments may be reached without a great diminution in the revenues, or a wide spread financial panic.

It will be seen by the figures given by the Secretary, that the government is on the high road of prosperity in reducing the national debt, and the Treasury will cling to the policy of liquidating the debt by keeping the national revenue above the national expenditures. To this end, a draft of a bill will be submitted proposing an equalization in internal taxation, and a modification of the existing tariff.

In 1867 and 1868, $830,000,000 of 7 3-10 notes fall due. A large amount of the first series are now being funded in 5-20 bonds.

Correspondence of the Whig.

BOSTON, Dec. 6.

If my letters do not resemble meteors in brilliancy, they do in uncertainty of appearance. I trust you have not been up any o'nights looking for this one. Absence from home, and the absence of items since my return must answer for non-appearance.

November went out mildly and this first week of December has been soft enough for Virginia weather some month.

We see by to-day's paper that Mr. Northend of Salem, who was General Butler's opponent in the fifth district, has entered a protest against the issuing of a certificate of election to General Butler, on the ground of non-residence, but Attorney General Reed decides in the General's favor, so he will be in position to impeach the President if he concludes to do so.

We have a surplus of amusements and lectures this season. The "Handel and Haydn" Society commenced their season a week ago Sunday night, with the Oratorio of St. Paul, with Miss Houston for soprano. She sung in your city at the Festival under the management of Messrs. Wilder & Davenport two years since. The society is liberally patronized, and is a regular institution here. When they were planning the great musical festival in May, 1865, ten thousand dollars was promptly subscribed to insure the society against loss by the great outlay necessary to secure the requisite talent, but the receipts at the door paid all and left quite a handsome balance in the treasury. We have had the pleasure of hearing Parepa again, for two evenings only. No singer since Jenny Lind has been received in Boston with such genuine enthusiasm; she comes again in February.

At the theatres spectacular play are the rage. At the Museum they have "Griffith Gaunt," and at the Continental "Monte Christo," dramatized from Dumas' famous novel. John Brougham is sick this week, so they have revived the Octoroon at the "Boston Theatre." The Florences are in their eighth week at the "Howard." Prof. Agassiz has just concluded a course of very interesting lectures, giving the results of the labors in Brazil the past year.

A strong effort is being made to increase our facilities for transportation from the West, and also for increased steamboat navigation across the water. The first steamer of a new line to Liverpool was launched at Newburyport last week. She is a magnificent steamer, called the "Ontario." A sister ship will be completed by next April. Others are to follow.

The question of filling up the flats from near Foster's wharf, where the Katahdin lands, to near South Boston bridge, about nine hundred acres, is now under consideration. It is an immense undertaking, and the committee to report upon the feasibility of the plan are giving a very patient hearing to the "pros" and "cons," hearing interested parties on both sides of the question. It will give land on which to build heavy storehouses, convenient to shipping, and railroad termini, which will be extended to the wharves and add largely to our wharf frontage. But I am getting on to a large subject, and my letter is already long enough. I will reserve something for a starling of another letter, and which will be along by Christmas.

ZED.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.

The only thing of interest in Congress today was the debate in the House on the bill regulating the sessions of Congress. There seemed a general agreement on the Republican side of the chamber that the 40th Congress ought to meet on the 5th of next March. But there was wide difference of opinion as to where the other sessions should begin.—Some serious local difficulties were found in the way of meeting in March, but it was thought they might be overcome. It was understood that there shall be a consultation before Monday, among representatives from States whose elections do not occur prior to the 1st of March, to see if an agreement can be reached as to the details of the bill.

Considerable conversation with members of the House shows that there is a marked hostility in many quarters to the views of the Secretary of the Treasury respecting contraction of currency. How they will be looked upon by the ways and means committee cannot yet be said, and what influence the opinion of that committee may have on the House is entirely problematical; but just now it would be altogether impossible for the Secretary to carry his measures thro' that body.—[Sp. to Boston Adv.

Facts from the Annual Reports.

[We have heretofore given facts from the Army and Treasury Reports.]

CONDITION OF THE NAVY.

Secretary Welles reports that the total number of vessels in the navy at this time is 278, armed with 2,351 guns. Of these there are in commission and on active duty 115 vessels, carrying 1,029 guns. The following gives a statement of the character and condition of the force:

	Number.	Guns.
Vessels in squadron service,	69	694
Vessels on special service,	9	83
Vessels on service at home stations, including receiving-ships, Naval Academy, navy-yard duty, &c.,	37	252
Total No. in commission,	115	1,029
Iron-clad vessels laid up,	54	147
Iron-clad vessels not completed,	7	40
Steam vessels not completed,	19	386
Sailing vessel not completed (old line of battle ships),	2	—
Wooden vessels laid up, repairing, fitting for sea and for sale,	81	749
Total No. vessels and guns,	278	2,351

The total number of seamen in the naval and coast survey service is about 13,600.

NAVAL DEPOTS FOR IRON CLADS.

"In consequence of the failure of the Senate to act on the bill which passed the House of Representatives for the acceptance of League Island for naval purposes, the government remains without a depot or station for our iron and armored naval vessels. Most of them have been permitted to remain in the back channel at League Island, where they were placed after the close of the war, as the best and most available location for their security and preservation. It is desirable that the bill for the acceptance of League Island, which has been unfortunately delayed in its passage through the Senate, should receive the early action of that body.

HARBOR DEFENCE.

"The changes which have taken place within a few years, both in the character of vessels and guns, have raised questions as to the most effective means and the best use of those means for sea-coast defence. The value of iron-clad vessels, of channel obstructions, and of torpedoes as means of defence, are, respectively, matters for consideration. A communication was addressed by this department to the Secretary of War in February last, suggesting the organization of a joint army and navy board for the consideration of these questions and the adoption of some general principles concerning them. This board, consisting of Rear-Admirals Charles H. Davis and John A. Dahlgren, and Commodore James Alden, of the navy, and Brevet Major General J. G. Barnard, Brevet Brigadier General J. B. Tower, and Brevet Brigadier General B. S. Alexander, of the army, assembled at Washington on the 1st of March, and continued in session until the 17th of July.

"In their preliminary report the board advocated the importance of having always on hand a number of iron clad vessels at each of our great commercial cities, and within the waters of our exterior bays; but without further information both as to the offensive and defensive properties of our forts, and also of our iron clads, it was unable to specify the requisite number or to define precisely the part they should perform in the defence of our harbors, especially as that would depend upon the degree of success which might be attained in a well devised system of channel obstructions."

THE PUBLIC DOMAIN.

Secretary Browning's report shows that the entire amount of the public domain is 1,465,468,800 acres, of which 474,160,551 acres have been surveyed. The attention of Congress is again invited to the expediency of making early provision for the adjustment of claims to land in New Mexico and Arizona, arising under the laws of Spain or Mexico. Changes in the pre emption laws are also recommended, in order to simplify and render them uniform.

THE NATIONAL PENSIONERS.

By the increased rates of pension more than $33,000,000 will be required for this branch of the service during the next fiscal year. Samuel Downing, of Edinburg, Saratoga county, New York, is the only surviving soldier of the revolution. The names of 931 widows of revolutionary soldiers appear on the pension rolls at the close of the last fiscal year. The invalid pensioners disabled in the wars prior to that of 1861 do not exceed 3,000. The widows and minor children who receive a pension by reason of the services and death of those who served in such wars, number 1,227. During the last fiscal year 22,645 original applications for invalid pensions were granted, at an an aggregate annual rate of $1,759,813.

The whole number of new army pensioners of all classes added to the rolls during the year ending June 30, 1866, was 49,721 requiring for their payment $4,500,523. On the 30th of June there were on the pension rolls 54,620 invalids, whose yearly rate of pensions was $4,128,718, and 69,889 widows and dependent relatives, at a yearly rate of $7,284,404, making a total of 124,509 army pensioners at an annual aggregate of $11,413,122 26.

GOVERNMENT RAILROADS DURING THE WAR.

During the war the government operated 2,105 miles of railroad in the Southern States, running 419 engines and 6,330 cars, and laid or relaid 641 miles of track. Upwards of 187,000 lineal feet of bridges were built or rebuilt, and at one time 25,000 men were employed on the military railroads.—The total expenditure in this branch of the service was $20,838,179.

General McCullum, was appointed Superintendent of Railroads in February, 1862, under an order from Secretary Stanton. At that time only one railroad was in possession of the government—the Washington and Alexandria, seven miles long. At the end of the following March, the Orange and Alexandria Railroad was opened to Manassas Junction, and in April to Warrenton Junction. Other railways in Virginia were rapidly extended or built, and lines were seized in Maryland and Pennsylvania for the military service.

Gen. McCullum's report contains one passage which shows how our men built roads or repaired them after destruction by rebel raids:

"The most important single structure was Chattahoochee bridge, seven hundred and eighty feet long, and ninety-two feet high, which was completed by the construction corps in four and a half days. While occupied as a military road, this was more infested by guerrillas than any other during the war. Every device possible to apply was used to throw trains from the track, and though occasionally successful, the preparations to guard against such attempts were so complete that few of them caused loss of life, or more than a few hours' detention.

"Early in October, 1864, General Hood passed around General Sherman's army, and fell upon the railroad at several points in its rear. He destroyed thirty-five and a half miles of track, and four hundred and fifty-five lineal feet of bridges; but in thirteen days after he left the line it was repaired, and trains were run over its entire length."

—Rev. Silas McKeen, D. D., who commenced his labors at Bradford, Vt., more than half a century ago, was released from his pastoral charge Nov. 21st, and Rev. J. K. Williams was installed as his successor.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM GOING OVER NIAGARA. A painfully intense excitement was experienced by hundreds of people living along the Niagara river, on Tuesday afternoon of last week at the sight of a vessel, with three men on board being rapidly borne down the current towards the Falls, without any apparent possibility of rescue from the shore. The facts are as follows:

As the small Canadian trading schooner, the Whip, Capt. J. T. Young, was being towed out of the Chippewa Harbor by the tug Buffalo, the line by which she was attached to the tug was broken by the strength of the current, and she was carried swiftly down toward the rapid above the Falls. The captain and two men on board saw at once that they were in imminent danger, having neither anchor nor small boat, and being in such a position that no one dared attempt their rescue from the shore.

By this time hundreds of people were gathering along the banks, expecting nothing else than certain destruction to the vessel and her crew, but when within a couple of hundred yards of the commencement of the rapids, the cool head of the captain conceived an idea which saved the lives of the whole party as well as the vessel. There was quite a gale blowing up the river at the time, and the master, with the aid of two men, seeing all other relief out of the question, ordered all sails hoisted and sailed out of the very jaws of death against the powerful current of the river, absolutely landing soon after at Hog Island in safety, having gone further down the Niagara River than any other man did in a boat and escape.

The admiration and relief of the people along the river banks, upon the execution of the captain's plan, found vent in frequent cheers when it became apparent that his efforts would prove successful.

PURCHASE OF LOWER CALIFORNIA. This transaction took place in Washington, with the tacit consent of the government, and through the active agency of Senor Romero. It has now been formally confirmed by the Juarez government, and the title is settled beyond reasonable doubt. It is the largest purchase by private persons in modern times. It covers 46,800 square miles, extending from gulf to ocean, between the parallels of 24 degrees and 20 minutes and 30 degrees of north latitude.—[Boston Jour.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.

Impeachment of the President.

While a decided majority of the Republican Congress regard it as injudicious to attempt to impeach Andrew Johnson on any of the charges which have been made, there are a few earnest Representatives who are determined not to relinquish the idea. They have secured the appointment of several special committees of investigation, one of which will visit New Orleans, and they confidently expect to secure such evidence as will form ground for impeachment, and will insure conviction and disposition from office.

Colored Suffrage in the District.

Senator Morrill proposes to amend the bill granting impartial suffrage to the colored people of the District by the addition of an educational proviso. It is certain that the amended bill will be enacted; and it is probable that the present city charter of Washington and Georgetown will be taken from them, to be replaced by a Territorial Government for the District of Columbia, with Commissioners and a Delegate to the House of Representatives.—Sp. to Boston Journal.

Peace Hath its Victories.

To prevent or conquer disease is a grand achievement; and as surely as bullet and bayonet will destroy, so surely will HOSTETTER'S BITTERS preserve and prolong life.

This is the most trying period of the year. The stamina of the strongest yields more or less to the consuming temperature of midsummer. Vigor comes from every pore. The strength of man passes away in invisible vapor, and weaker woman becomes reduced and nerveless. It was to meet such difficulties that Hostetter's Bitters were given to society. It is to prevent the evil consequences to which an unbraced, depleted, debilitated organization is liable, that they are recommended as a SUMMER TONIC for both sexes. Old people die of exhaustion every day, who might have kept death at bay for years to come, by an occasional resort to this powerful and harmless vegetable stomachic.

Nine-tenths of the community, rich as well as poor, work continually. If their hands are unemployed their brains are busy, and head work is as depressing to the vital energies as muscular toil.—But tone the system with Hostetter's Bitters and the wear and tear of business life will be comparatively unfelt even in the most oppressive weather. No langour will be experienced, for as fast as the vital forces are expended they will be recruited and renewed by this healthful restorative. As a summer Invigorant it is indispensable to young and old. Sold everywhere.

Vegetable Hair Restorer!

AS A HAIR PREPARATION this stands without a rival—has proved itself by the thousands who have tested its virtues for the past three years,

THE ONLY RELIABLE RESTORER

Of Gray, Faded, or Diseased Hair, to its original color, condition and former beauty.

It is not a Dye, being a Vegetable Compound, and not injurious in its application; but is warranted to restore Gray, Faded, or Diseased Hair to its original color in 20 days.

By its invigorating properties, promotes a luxuriant growth on Bald Heads, in all cases where such a result is possible, prevents the hair from falling off; eradicates dandruff, humors, and all other impurities from the scalp; and as a Restorer and Dressing combined, it has no equal.

The great and increasing sales of this preparation, attest the high value in which it is held; and the fact that its reputation has been established solely upon its own merit and worth—the trial of a single bottle will convince the most sceptical of its virtues.

MAGIC BIRD!

THIS most wonderful Exhibition of Mechanical Ingenuity, created the greatest enthusiasm in the Crystal Palace Exhibition, London.

What the London Times says of it:

THE WONDER OF THE WORLD: A FAIRY SINGING BIRD!—This extraordinary little Songster, the size of a Butterfly, is the most perfect piece of mechanism ever seen or heard of in this country. The power, sweetness, and variety of its song, causes the greatest delight and astonishment, surpassing in every way the famous PIPING BULFINCH.

It is now on exhibition for the first time in this country, and may be seen for THREE DAYS, at 22½ Kenduskeag Bridge, Strickland's Block, and adjoining S. W. Sawyer's Photograph Rooms. Admission 10 cents. dec 6

Charles Lenox Remond addressed the con- vention. He did not come to ask right for himself as an individual, for at home he had all these, but to advocate the equality of all and their admission to suffrage and other privileges.

He spoke about an hour. He accused the American people of lying and cowardice and declared he would continue to do so until they rendered justice bravely to all. He remarked a politician of Philadelphia said the freedmen on the plantations had displayed superior sagacity. They had chosen the right side and the winning side and said in that far surpassed the copperhead party, which has done neither.

James Caddington was brought before U. S. Commissioner Betts to-day, charged with procuring straw bonds as securities at the office of the Collector of Internal Revenue.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 7

Letters received from Montana report a terrible state of things among the small number of troops stationed at the different posts from Virginia City to Forts Smith and Kearney.

A letter from Fort Smith says:

"From this point down to Platte river the road is a graveyard. About 150 men have been killed."

We have had no intelligence from Fort Kearney for many days and fear communication is cut off. The Crow Indians report 1500 lodges hostile Indians moving towards this post for the purpose of capturing it.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Dec. 7.

A tender attached to the engine of a passenger train on the Memphis, Clarksville & Louisville Railroad, ran off the track this morning eight miles south of Clarksville, precipitating two cars down an embankment 15 feet, killing an express messenger and injuring a number of passengers.

FRANKLIN, Penn., Dec. 7.

Hon. O. V. Culver, held in custody here by the civil law was brought before Judge Frankey yesterday on a writ of habeas corpus, and asked to be discharged on the ground that he was a member of Congress from the 20th Congressional District, Penn.

After able arguments on both sides Judge Frankey decided today that a member of Congress was not entitled to his privilege when held for an offence such as he was charged with.

NORFOLK, Va., Dec. 7.

Gunboat Chicopee, commander, Spicer, for Charleston 3d inst., arrived at the Norfolk Navy Yard to-day. She encountered heavy southwest gales south of Hatteras, badly spraining her hull.

The flag ship Rhode Island, Admiral Palmer, had arrived at Charleston, and would shortly sail for other southern ports to inspect the vessels of the squadron.

A literary gentleman sojourning at the Somerset House, Plymouth, last summer, called at the town bookstore for Goldsmith's Greece. The lad in attendance replied, "We do not keep it; you will find it at the watchmaker's, next door."

A SAD CASE. On Monday last Mr. Ebenezer Sawtelle was buried from his late residence in Groton, and the same night, after the family had retired they were aroused about midnight by the cry of fire, and the house in which they resided, with much valuable property, clothing, &c., was entirely destroyed entailing a loss on the widow of some two thousand dollars, on which she had no insurance. The fire was caused by a defect in the chimney.

THE CASE OF SURRATT. Correspondence in reference to the arrest of John H. Surratt, when sent in to Congress, will show that Government has known of his whereabouts and movements nearly all the time since he fled to Europe. There will be no trouble in procuring evidence to convict him, for his own confessions in Italy, to his fellow-soldiers, are ample, if every means are taken to bring them out.—Sp. to Boston Journal.

—A deer was shot in Belfast on Wednesday last, upon land belonging to Hon. A. G. Jewett, as we learn from The Journal.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

NO STEAMER TO-DAY. We have a private despatch from Boston, informing us that there will be no steamer to arrive today (in place of the Katahdin which lays over for repairs) and none of course to depart from here on Monday. The agent says a boat will be provided as soon as possible.

—The Belfast Journal ridicules the assertion of Rev. Mr. Field of this city in his Thanksgiving sermon, that there is no State sovereignty in our political system, and quotes from Madison, where he says in speaking of the U. S. Senate:

"The equal vote allowed to each State [great and small] is at once a constitutional recognition of the portion of sovereignty remaining in the individual States, and an instrument for preserving that residuary sovereignty."

We did not, when speaking of Mr. Field's discourse, intend to represent him as saying that there were not certain reserved rights left to the States, in which they are "sovereign," (said rights not coming in conflict with the powers of the General Government)—but simply that no State is sovereign in the light of having the right to govern itself,—as the secessionists affirm and the copperheads agree to. The very words quoted from Madison show this. There is only a "residuary sovereignty" left to the States. They cannot go on of themselves, independent of the Union, without revolution. Therefore they are not sovereign. They cannot be, without successful rebellion. It was "we the people" (not the States) of the Union who established the National Government.

—As an evidence of the mildness of our winter weather we have a dandelion flower taken from an open field yesterday by Mr. T. G. Rich of Hampden. May flowers have been found this month in various parts of the State. "May and December"—the lion and the lamb—have in truth come to lay down together.

PIONEER CHAPEL. Services, under the auspices of the Spiritualists of this city, will be resumed at Pioneer Chapel to-morrow. Miss Susie Johnson, one of the most noted of the spiritual speakers, has been engaged for several Sabbaths—afternoons and evenings. She has recently spoken at Portland—and The Argus says—to crowded houses.

LIVE STOCK INSURANCE. Attention is directed to the advertisement of Messrs. B. Plummer & Sons, respecting the Hartford (Conn.) Live Stock Insurance Company.—Those having most of their means in stock are enabled by insurance in this Company to secure it against accidents and loss as completely as though it was invested in less hazardous and less mutable property. It meets a want long felt, and we understand is being quite generally availed of. The fact that Plummer & Sons are agents is guaranty that the Company is a safe one.

DELIVERED UP. At the Police Court yesterday, the bondsmen of Henry Grant, (charged with incendiarism in the burning of Mr. Savage's barn last summer) delivered him up, and he was committed to await his trial in February.

—The Dover Observer says that in Parkman recently a little daughter of Lorenzo D. Libby, aged about three years, fell into a tub of boiling, scalding her whole person except the head, hands and feet. The little girl is alive, but in a very precarious condition.

—The "Vesta Veazie" is the charming name of a fine barque launched by White & McGilvery, Belfast, and to be commanded by Capt. W. G. Veazie, who owns one quarter of her.

—The Bath Times thinks that Bath will do her full share in rendering aid to build the proposed road from Rockland to Bath. The Times hears that the Committee appointed to visit towns and cities east of the Kennebec to confer with the citizens, will soon enter upon their task.

—The Press says that Rev. Dr. Nealey, Bishop elect of Maine, arrived in that city Tuesday, and has been the guest of G. E. B. Jackson, Esq. He returns to New York today. We learn that arrangements are being made for his consecration to the Bishopric forthwith. His residence is not decided upon, but it is supposed he will reside in Portland and take charge of St. Luke's Church.

—The Eastport Sentinel says Edward Kelley was found drowned this morning at the foot of the steps at Union wharf. Mr. Kelly was one of our oldest citizens, emphatically an honest man, an enemy to no man, and himself his only enemy.

—We learn from the Portland Argus that G. A. Phillips, Esq. and James P. Blunt, Esq., with others of Waterville, have secured one of the water privileges at that place, and are to hold it with a view of selling to some person or persons who will improve the same by building factories, thereby benefitting the town.

—The steamer Star of the East has been withdrawn from the Kennebec and Boston line, for the season. The Eastern Queen will continue to run until the river closes.

—We learn from the Portland Argus that an explosion took place at the Glass Works in that city Thursday morning. Four persons were burned severely, but none of them fatally. Four others were injured, but not seriously.

—We learn from the Gospel Banner that preliminary steps are being taken in Augusta for the erection of a new Universalist church.

—The Argus says that Messrs. A. & P. Coburn of Skowhegan, own 400,000 acres of land on the Kennebec river, which is equal to four townships. This firm will cut 26,000,000 feet of logs this winter—employing 228 oxen, 152 horses and 800 men.

—The Farmer says a splendid American grey, or golden eagle, (aquilla canadensis) was exhibited in Augusta last week. It was caught in a trap in Sidney by Mr. John Dunn, and was unharmed in every respect.

—We learn from The Farmer that the dwelling house, two barns, and all the outbuildings belonging to Ithen Le Ford, of East Livermore, were this week destroyed by fire, together with the hay, grain, farming tools, and household furniture. Loss about $3000—insured for $7000. Supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

SHOOTING AFFAIR. Mr. Editor—Sam'l Pinkham and his son George H. Pinkham, of Dedham, were arrested on the 4th inst, for feloneously shooting the son of Tyrel Gilmore, a little boy of 13 years, with intent to "kill and murder."

The case is worth relating: It appears that two sons of Mr. Gilmore, aged 13 and 14 years, were accompanying a Hunniwell boy home, on the evening of the 17th ult., and, in passing the Pinkham house, they all gathered up some small stones, some three each, and threw at the martin box upon the shed or wood-house, "just to see who could hit it, and so have a little fun." It was a beautiful clear evening, and they thought it was no harm to throw at George Pinkham's martin box. But the old man Pinkham seemed to be frightened out of his wits, for some cause better known to his neighbors than to your informant, and told his son George H. to fire the gun at them, for they were coming to tear his house down. His son, (some 20 years of age, I should judge) ran out with the gun heavily loaded with partridge shot, and took deliberate aim at one of those little Gilmore boys and shot him in the head, neck, back and arms, in a serious and nearly fatal manner. One shot took effect at the outer corner of the left eye, passing under the brow and came out the in the back of the head, which remains, also one nearly fatal in the neck; others in the spine. The little fellow was running away from the gun, across his father's pasture, as fast as he could—thus saving his life by distance only. The boy having lived through it, and being able to testify, his elder brother made complaint, and had the case examine before Trial Justice R. T. Osgood, of Orland, which resulted in George H. Pinkham being bound over in $500 for trial at the next S. J. Court at Ellsworth. The old man was acquitted on the ground of his not having "malice aforethought"—he not even seeing the boys before the shooting. This should be a warning to both old and young to be more careful about their "fun," and how they shoot small boys, without just cause. All the parties belonged in Dedham, Maine.

—The Minneapolis (Minn.) Chronicle contains an article concerning the business enterprises in that thrifty place. The following will be of interest to those in this region who knew Mr. Morrison:

"D. Morrison has sawed at his own mill, 11,103,073 feet, and has hired sawed by other parties, 835,482 feet of long lumber; has sawed at his own mill 2,617,300 of laths and 94,450 of pickets—making the value of lumber which has passed through Mr. Morrison's hands, this season, $268,486.10. Five million feet of this lumber he has rafted down the river. These figures, indeed, show a great business, and who deserves it more than one whose name is linked with nearly every moral and social enterprise with which this city has been favored?"

—A colored man named David Allen was stabbed in Lewiston Sunday evening by a fellow named Charles Robbins, who had an old grudge against him, and who with two other roughs undertook to flog him. The weapon used was a large jack-knife, and inflicted a severe, though the Journal thinks, not a fatal wound.

—C. A. Williams & Co., of Skowhegan, manufacture 20,000 pairs of skates in a season, some of which sells as high as $20 per pair in the New York market. This firm work about one-third of their time on skates, the remaining two-thirds on chisels, gouges, &c.,—[Argus.

Sch Northern Light, from an Eastern port with lumber, when off Sand's Point 5th, was run into by sch Silver Lake, also from an eastern port, lumber laden, the Northern Light being cut down to the water's edge. The Silver Lake was towed to New York A. M.; full of water.—Boston Advertiser.

—C. H. Smith, Esq., of the Canaan Hotel, Canaan, has leased the Williams House, Waterville, for a term of years. Mr. Smith will open in a few weeks.

—Col. Charles H. Smith, late of Eastport, has been assigned to the command of the 20th regiment, United States infantry, headquarters at Camden, Ark.

—The Saco Democrat says a movement is being made to construct a horse railroad between that town and Biddeford, and a petition will be presented to the Legislature for an act of incorporation, incorporating the Saco and Biddeford Horse Railroad Company.

—The new hall building in Skowhegan is to be 110 feet long by 65 feet wide. There are to be six stores in the lower story. The second story is to be occupied as a town hall.

—The branch railway from St. Andrews to St. Stephen, N. B., is completed.

THE PORTLAND
KEROSENE OIL,
IS an entirely different article from the various refined Petroleums or Coal Oils daily sold as Kerosene. Its superiority consists in its great brilliancy of light; it does not smoke the glass or crust the wick; is free from offensive odor; entirely safe from explosion; and will last fifteen per cent. longer than any other oil.

It is put up in new heavy barrels, cemented inside, which entirely prevents leakage, and purchasers get the full number of gallons they pay for.

The subscribers offer this oil to the trade at the Factory price, delivered in Bangor.

A Perfect Treasure.

(Concluded.)

'The one I'm after is not among them, sir, so far as I know,' observed this official, jerking his thumb in the direction of the dining-room. 'Are you sure there are no more men in your house besides those I have seen?'

'Yes,' said I, 'there are no more.'

'Then I must have a look at the ladies.'

'The ladies!' cried I, aghast at this proposal. 'You don't want to go into the drawing-room?'

'It would be more satisfactory,' observed the detective, coolly. 'My information is very reliable. But, at all events, who is there?'

'Well,' said I, 'my wife is there for one; you have no information against her, I suppose?'

He nodded satisfaction so far.

'Then there's the Honorable Mrs. Matcham and her daughter.'

'Safe!' rejoined the detective, checking them off on his fingers.

'Mrs. Twistle of Regalia Square, and Lady Bobbington.'

'I suppose they're all right,' remarked my inquisitor, doubtfully. 'Are you sure there are no more?'

'There's my mother-in-law, but she's in her room, and exceedingly unwell.'

'Very good,' observed the detective inconsequentially. 'There's a plant somewhere in this house, however; you may take your oath of that, and very likely in the last place where you would ever look for it; so now I must see the maids.'

It was astonishing even to myself in what complete subjugation this man had placed me. Once, and once only, a terrible misgiving seized me—I was as full of suspicions by this time as a porcupine of quills, and darted them in as many directions—that the detective was a 'Plant' that would presently blossom into a burglar; but if it was so, I would trust to his clemency—just as an inhabitant of Dubernitz, deserted by Feldzeugmeister von Benedek, might have trusted to a Prussian—to leave me a silver fork or two to carry on the business of life. If this man turned out to be anything less than what he described himself to be, all authority would henceforth lose its effect with me. I had read of 'the grasp of the law' in works of fiction, but I had never understood the tremendous nature of that figure until I felt this gentleman's knuckles (metaphorically) inserted in my white cravat. He had to repeat, 'So now I must see the maids,' in his undeniable manner, before I could collect myself sufficiently to lead the way to the kitchen,—a spot to which I should not alone have ventured to penetrate. To say that the cook and the kitchen-maid stared at the phenomena of our presence, is to underrate their power of vision.

'Now, I dare say you have no charwoman nor any temporary assistant, my good woman, even on an occasion like the present,' observed my companion urbanely; 'but you and this young woman do all the work yourselves?'

'That's true, sir; we don't mind hard work now and then,' returned the cook, tossing her head; 'and besides, I don't like strangers in my kitchen,' added she with meaning, 'especially when I'm busy, and would rather have their room than their company.'

I would have given that woman five shillings upon the spot (and I did so the next morning) for that rapid discharge of words; the detective's tongue, although I had found it so terrible a weapon, was silenced by my domestic's needle-gun, and he retired much discomfited, I could see, notwithstanding that he strove to conceal his defeat beneath a contemptuous smile.

'Now, if I'd been an ordinary policeman, and in uniform,' whispered he to me, as we reached the hall again, 'I could come over that cook in no time.'

Without remarking upon this confession of defeat, I led the way up to the nursery. The servants in that department were not unused to visitors, and evidently imagined that my companion was some family-man among the guests, who had expressed a wish to 'see the dear children' in their cribs. He on his part, immediately understood the role he was expected to play, and walked admiringly from cot to cot, as though he were a connoisseur in babes.

'Charming children, and well taken care of, I can see,' observed he, with rather a familiar nod (I thought) towards the under-nurse. 'It is either of them,' he added in a low whisper. 'You have got a housemaid or two, I suppose?'

His tone was exactly that which an ogre might have used in making inquiries concerning the larder at a Cannibal inn.

The housemaids were inspected, and pronounced to be free from suspicion. 'But I cannot have seen everybody,' said he decisively.

'Yes,' said I, 'everybody, except Mrs. Maquecchy.'

'Friend of the family?' inquired the detective, with a disappointed air.

'Well, said I, 'I might almost say so. She came to us not only with the best of written characters, but my wife had an interview with her late mistress, a Mrs. Ogilvie, who pronounced her a perfect treasure; and we ourselves have found her all that could be wished.'

'I should like to see the 'perfect treasure,' quoth the detective, smiling grimly: 'we often find them to be the very people we want.'

'Nay,' said I, 'but in this case your suspicions are quite groundless; Mrs. Maquecchy is a superior person, and takes an interest in us which you seldom find in a domestic except after years of service. Besides, she is my mother-in-law's sick-nurse, and most likely they have already made their arrangements for the night. It would be a pity to disturb them.'

'I must see Mrs. Maquecchy,' returned my companion, gravely; she seems altogether too charming to be missed.'

'You detectives are clever fellows,' replied I with irritation: 'but you often spend your time very fruitlessly. However, since you have gone so far, you shall go through with the business.

With that I knocked at the door, and admitted to the sick room, informed my mother-in-law briefly of what was taking place; while the invaluable Maquecchy retired with her usual delicacy to the dressing-room. Perhaps, I spoke a little too loud, —for that Mrs. Maquecchy could stoop to eaves-dropping, it is hard to believe,—but, at all events, that intelligent woman must have possessed herself of the substance of what I related, for when I opened the door to the officer, I found her already outside, and in his custody. She had endeavored to escape through the second door of the dressing-room,—'bolted like a rabbut,' said the detective,—but had run into the very danger she would have avoided, and there she was with a couple of handcuffs over neat mittens.

'We know one another very well, me, and Mrs. Maquecchy,' observed the detective grimly. 'I was told I should find an old friend in this house, although I had no idea who it would be until you mentioned Mrs. Ogilvie. She is very charitable, she is in getting her fellow-creatures situations in respectable families where there happens to be a good deal of plate. It was this very night that this good lady here had engaged to open your front-door to her husband and a friend of his, who keeps a light cart in the mews yonder. Being a sick-nurse, you see, nobody would be surprised at her about the house at all hours. Wasn't that your little game, Mrs. Maquecchy?

'Well, I suppose it's a five-year touch?' observed that lady with philosophic coolness.

'Well I'm afraid it is, ma'am; since that other little business in Carlton Gardens still remains unsettled.—Good by sir, you will see Mrs. M. again, once or twice, before you have done with her; and in the mean time you take my advice, sir, and in hiring another sick-nurse for your mother-in-law, don't you apply to Mrs. Ogilvie.'

And off he walked with our 'perfect treasure.'

A soldier, whose regiment lay in a garrison town in England, was about to be brought before his commanding officer for some offence. He was an old offender, and had been often punished. 'Here he is again,' said the officer, on his name being mentioned; 'every thing flogging, disgrace, imprisonment—has been tried with him.' Whereupon the sergeant stepped forward, and apologizing for the liberty he took, said,—'There is one thing which has never been done with him yet, sir.'

'What is that?' was the answer.

'Well, sir,' said the sergeant, 'he has never been forgiven.'

'Forgiven!' exclaimed the colonel, surprised at the suggestion.

He reflected for a few moments, ordered the culprit to be brought in, and asked him what he had to say to the charge?

'Nothing, sir,' was the reply; 'only I am sorry for what I have done.'

Turning a kind and pitiful look on the man, who expected nothing else than that his punishment would be increased with the repetition of his offence, the colonel addressed him saying, 'Well, we have resolved to forgive you!'

The soldier was struck dumb with astonishment; the tears started in his eyes and he wept like a child. He was humbled to the dust; he thanked his officer, and retired—to be the old refractory, incorrigible man? No; he was another man from that day forward. He who tells the story had him for years under his eye, and a better conducted man never wore the queen's colors. In him kindness bent one whom harshness could not break.

MYSTERIOUS IMPRESSIONS. The following curious story is told in connection with the death of Lord Francis Douglas, who was recently lost in ascending the Alps. During the halt which took place, one of the guides, says an account, stated that he was frightened. What really passed was, that the guide to whom Lord Francis was attached said, 'Gentlemen, there is great reason to fear that we shall not be able to effect our descent without an accident; therefore let each of us think about his soul.' Then Mr. Hudson took out his Bible and Lord Francis went apart from the others and remained in silence and meditation for a whole hour. On the same day the Marchioness of Queensberry was in her garden in the Isle of Wight. She was working and praying according to her usual custom. All at once she experienced a sudden revulsion of the heart; she thought she felt that her son was in danger, and she uttered a fervent prayer to his Heavenly Father to protect him. For three days the impression remained on her mind that Lord Francis was dying of famine. The same day a domestic had a vision in which she saw the young man covered with wounds and in the last stage of inanition. It was remarkable that while the remains of the other travelers were found, nothing of Lord Francis could be recovered except his boots, which were unlaced, as if he had thrown these down a precipice. What was the fate of the young man? Could he have fallen down a crevasse, and there have perished of hunger?

A FACT FOR GEOLOGISTS. A Cornish journal in England says: 'In sinking a shaft at the Garden Tin Mine in Morvah, the men have met with a perfect pillar, about eight inches in diameter, standing in the solid rock, and very different in its composition from the surrounding granite; and, what is stranger still, at the base of this pillar they have come upon what they say is a fly-wheel of the same material. Large pieces, both of the pillar and wheel, were exhibited to the adventurers at the account meeting on the 2d, and some portions of both are still left unbroken in the rock.'

THE SINGER NEW FAMILY

SEWING MACHINE.

THE superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either FAMILY USE or MANUFACTURING PURPOSES, are so well established and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellencies is no longer considered necessary.

THE LETTER "A" FAMILY MACHINE,

hitherto manufactured by this Company, has gained and maintained the world over, and for years past, an unparalleled reputation and sale. But notwithstanding the excellence of this Machine, we have now to announce that it has been superseded by our which has been over two years in preparation, and which has been brought to perfection regardless of TIME, LABOR or EXPENSE, and is now confidently presented to the public as incomparably the BEST SEWING MACHINE IN EXISTENCE.

The machine in question is SIMPLE, COMPACT, DURABLE and BEAUTIFUL. It is QUIET, LIGHT RUNNING, and CAPABLE OF PERFORMING A RANGE AND VARIETY OF WORK never before attempted upon a single machine—using either silk, twist, linen or cotton thread, and sewing with equal facility the VERY FINEST and coarsest materials, and any thing between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner. Its attachments for hemming, braiding, cording, tucking, quilting, felling, trimming, binding, etc., are novel and practical, and have been invented and adjusted, especially for this machine.

PENOBSCOT MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY,

BANGOR, MAINE.

OFFICE,---Corner of Hammond and Central Streets.

Incorporated 1836.

THIS COMPANY IS WHOLLY MUTUAL. It is strictly a Benevolent Institution for Mutual Protection.

This Company being purely Mutual, insures at the lowest possible rates. The member in reality insure each other, and the accumulated assets are held by the Company in trust to meet its obligations to them.

Among the many reasons why this Company deserves the liberal support and patronage which it has attained, are the following:—

It offers the most ample and undoubted security to its members. It possesses over

IN RELIABLE ASSETS.

The business of the Company is confined exclusively to Fire Insurance. The Assets, in proportion to the amount at risk, are probably greater than those of any Established Company in the United States. It has always adjusted and settled its losses with promptness and liberality. It is economical in its business. Its Directors are well known—they are men of wealth, reliability, and integrity. It being purely a Maine Institution—other things being equal—entitles it to a preference over Foreign Corporations.

This Company will continue as heretofore to insure persons against

THE

Great New England Remedy!

DR. J. W. POLAND'S

White Pine Compound

IS now offered to the afflicted throughout the country, after having been proved by the test of eleven years, in the New England States, where its merits have become as well known as the tree from which, in part, it derives its virtues.

The White Pine Compound

CURES

Sore Throat, Colds, Coughs, Diptheria, Bronchitis, Spitting of Blood, and Pulmonary Affections generally. It is a Remarkable Remedy for Kidney Complaints, Diabetes, Difficulty of Voiding Urine, Bleeding from the Kidneys and Bladder, Gravel and other Complaints. For Piles and Scurvy it will be found very valuable.

Give it a trial if you would learn the value of a GOOD AND TRIED MEDICINE.

NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE COMPY.

Which is the Best Company to Insure in?

THE Massachusetts Commissioners, in presenting their Eleventh Annual Report to the Legislature of that State, say, "More than a million of persons belonging to the cream of our population are directly interested in this question." In no State is the ground better canvassed, and the character of the Companies more fully understood, than in Massachusetts. Nowhere are the Commissioners' reports so freely distributed and closely scrutinized.

The NEW BUSINESS of the four leading Companies in the city of Boston for 1864 was as follows:

New York Life, N.Y,	$1,232,600
Mutual Life,	830,500
Mutual Benefit, N J.,	256,500
Connecticut Mutual, Ct,	174,350

Mutual Benefit,	not given.	74,849 00	7

SUICIDE

Does not cause a forfeiture of the Policy in this Company, which is not the case with any other Company in AMERICA.

We have the Reports of the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts, showing the standing of all the Insurance Companies in the country, and persons desirous of ascertaining the standing of any, of these Companies with a view to insurance, can have access to these Reports.

CANCERS CAN BE CURED!

DR. L. CHASE,

(LATE OF PORTLAND),

THE CELEBRATED

INDIANOPATHY, CANCER & HUMOR DOCTOR,

HAVING purchased the residence of H. A. WOOD, 54 Hammond Street, Bangor, Maine, would be happy to be consulted by all who are afflicted with Cancers, Cancer Humors, Tumors, Scrofula, Leprosy, Salt Rheum, Fits, Neuralgia, Bronchial Affections, Catarrh, Rheumatism, Sick Headache, Liver Diseases, Female Weaknesses, Piles, Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Diseases of the Kidneys. Stiff Joints, Gravel, Diabetes, &c., &c.

DR. CHASE has practiced in his profession for sixteen years, and in that time has spent two years in Florida and Cuba, for the purpose of gaining a correct knowledge of the most efficient remedies used by the various tribes of Indians of that country, and by great expense has gained many valuable secrets which have heretofore been unknown to the world.

In Cancer he claims superiority over all other Physicians of the age, for he never fails to perform a cure when taken in a proper stage.

His mode of curing Cancers is by the application of a plaster, which is strictly vegetable, and will have no effect upon the healthy flesh; and in no case uses a knife, as does Dr. Greene, of Boston.

He also boldly asserts that he can tell every individual their disease and location of their pains, and describe their feelings in almost every case, more minutely than they can possibly themselves.

Dr. Chase is not a Clairvoyant, but conducts his examinations on a strictly scientific principle, and will challenge any professed medium for a test examination.

Office hours from 9 A.M. to 8 P.M. Examinations free. Office at residence No. 54 Hammond Street.

BEST COOKING STOVE,

IN THE MARKET,

"PEERLESS," FOR COAL OR WOOD.

THE "PEERLESS" has all the advantages of the popular stoves in use, together with such NEW FEATURES as justify the manufacturers in calling it the BEST COOKING STOVE in the market.

It is the "PEERLESS," because it is superior to all other Cooking Stoves in Economy, Simplicity, Cleanliness, Baking, Roasting and Beauty.

1st, ECONOMY. A patented method of heating the air and conveying it through the oven, saves from twenty to thirty per cent. of fuel.

2d, SIMPLICITY. It is easily managed. The fire can be perfectly controlled, and kept through an entire season without rekindling.

3d, CLEANLINESS. No dust escapes while shaking or dumping the grate.

4th, BAKING. Its large oven, wherein all parts are of equal temperature, bakes as evenly as a brick oven, and that without turning the article. It bakes quickly. It will bake upon the oven rack quickly, evenly and well at the same time the oven bottom is fully employed in baking or roasting.

5th, ROASTING. A current of hot air constantly passing through the oven, so thoroughly ventilates it, that it roasts as well as a tin kitchen.

6th, BEAUTY. Made of the best iron, it will not crack. Well mounted, artistically designed and smoothly cast, it is the most beautiful as well as the most serviceable stove in the market.

Each stove is WARRANTED to be and to do all that is claimed for it.

Special Notice

To Soldiers and Seamen!!

The Law Has Passed

Bounties Equalized.

Justice Done the Early Soldiers and Seamen of the War, their Widows and Heirs.

NOTICE has been sent me from Washington, that the Law equalizing the bounty to Soldiers and Seaman was passed Saturday last, July 28th, by Congress.

I am now authorized and prepared to collect this Bounty for every Soldier and Seaman entitled, also for their Widows and Heirs.

Application made personally at my office, or by mail,—the discharge of the Soldier or Seaman should be handed in—as it must be forwarded with the application.

All applications must be made signed, witnessed and sworn to, AFTER THE PASSAGE OF THIS LAW. Many soldiers have been induced to sign papers before the law passed. This practice is irregular, fraudulent and void, and papers in all such cases must be made over.
